

Samuel Mortimer

The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania
smorti@wharton.upenn.edu

EDUCATION

The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, USA — 2019–Present
PhD in Ethics and Legal Studies

Kyoto University, Japan — 2019
Research Student (研究生), Philosophy Department, Graduate School of Letters

University of Oxford, UK — 2011–2016
BA Philosophy and Theology, First Class

WORKING PAPERS

2021 The difference between ethical, enjoyable, and meaningful work
Under review at Journal of Business Ethics

2021 “All money ain’t good money”: How Workers with Callings Respond to Financial Incentives
Preparing for submission to Administrative Science Quarterly

2021 Participatory Attitudes and Taking Responsibility
Preparing for submission to Ethics

PEER-REVIEWED PRESENTATIONS

2020 Society for Business Ethics Annual Conference

2020 International Society for Utilitarian Studies Annual Conference, University of Chicago
Cancelled due to Covid-19

2020 Philosophy of Management Conference, University of Oxford
Cancelled due to Covid-19

2020 Society of Applied Philosophy Annual Conference, University of Edinburgh
Cancelled due to Covid-19

AWARDS

2020-2021 Corporate Social Responsibility Fellowship, University of Pennsylvania

2020 Founders’ Award, Society for Business Ethics

LANGUAGES

English (native); Japanese; French (reading)